

Shepherd's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

Should a priest wade into the complexities of current affairs? Admittedly, these are not a parish priest's primary concern. A shepherd's green pastures would be useless if he didn't also defend against the ravenous wolves. Behold: Marxist ideologues now occupy the director chairs of our major institutions.

Matter of religion? If Marxism is an economic system, is it not indifferent to religion? Unfortunately, they hate God even more than they hate you. Marxism is a false religion. This makes it my jurisdiction, front and center.

We are at war. "Yes, yes," you say, "Church militant, spiritual combat, culture wars, etc. We get it." No, now we are in an economic war. The enemy of freedom has snuck up on us, pretending to be our friend. Surprise is a strategy of battle. The enemy grows bolder, but the false prophets of our age are crying "Peace, peace!" when there is no peace.

I like what Catherine Austin Fitts* has to say: "We find ourselves in a global economic war. The global lockdown is about money and power; it is about creating economic totalitarianism. Since April, global billionaires have increased their net worth by 27%. ... Think of this as a global coup d'état."

A system of slavery is being prepared by the global elites who control the world's major institutions. They deny that there is a coordinated effort between them—because their systems are not fully operational. It is a trap; after the trap is sprung it will be too late to resist. The Central Banks are inventing a new system of global transaction which will end currencies as we know them. The media are crafting the propaganda to brainwash the masses. Big Pharma is creating the injections that will give us a global digital ID. The military are supplying the satellites and enforcement. Big Tech are creating the information systems to control everything. Watch Austin Fitts explain her position (already censored by YouTube!): <https://www.bitchute.com/video/HROcFovg5ZWm/>

The global elites are acquiring all the wealth and power. They will grant themselves great privileges and deprive you of all. The trap has not sprung yet—resistance is not yet futile!

Courage! This will be the defining struggle of our age. Christ asks us to fight for what is true and good, without counting the cost. His final victory has already been won; despair has been destroyed. Courage! Fr. Novokowsky, fssp

- Mandatory Face Mask Bylaw for Niagara: All people in an indoor public space must wear a face mask. Some may have a medical exemption. Please see the posted bylaw for details.
- By Invitation Only: Province-Wide Lock Down: Our number of congregants (including the priest and server is limited to 10. Mass attendance will be by INVITATION ONLY for the time being. We cannot accept registrations for Mass at this time. Updates will be published by email.
- 1:30 pm Communion Service. Please note the new time of 1:30 pm. This is a “drive-thru” service at the Padre Pio Shrine. Enter the parking lot through the back gate. Line up at the shrine. When you reach the head of the line (immediately outside the shrine), exit your car all together, enter the shrine, receive Communion, re-enter your car and depart the lot, allowing the next car to approach. This way only one family will be seen outside their cars at any one time. We’ll give the wrong impression if many people are milling about. Please pray the Act of Contrition before arriving. Your Post Communion devotions will have to be offered “off campus.” In the shrine: an offertory basket is available; no masks are necessary because all you’re doing is receiving.
- Letter from Matt Jagas. Included with this week’s bulletin.
